AGENDA VOTING:

Motion was made to appoint Alexandra Baloga as a full-time probationary Plymouth Borough Police Officer under the following conditions as stated herein: Said officer is to serve a probationary period of one hundred eighty (180) days under such terms and conditions that may be prescribed by the Plymouth Borough Council. During the probationary period the Police Officer shall not receive any benefits, including but not limited to Health Care, Vacation, Sick Days, Personal Days, Paid Holidays, or any other benefits or rights as specified in the current Collective Bargaining Agreement between the Police Bargaining Unit and Plymouth Borough. In addition, the employment status during the probationary period will be at will and not change unless appointed to a full-time police position. At the completion of the probationary period, the Plymouth Borough may at its discretion, appoint the probationary officer to the position of Full-Time Police Officer, at which time such appointment will be subject to the terms and conditions of the current Collective Bargaining Agreement between the Borough and the Bargaining Unit. In addition, during the probationary period, the probationary police officer shall accumulate not seniority rights nor have any rights under the terms and conditions of the current foresaid Collective Bargaining Agreement. However, once having been appointed by the Council to a position of full-time police officer, the one hundred eighty (180) day probation period time shall be considered as part of the officer's calculations under the Collective Bargaining Agreement. Also, in the event of appointment on the same day, to a full-time position seniority between appointees will be determined by order of appointment to the position of probationary officer.

*On the question: Mayor Coughlin wanted the public to know that this appointment is to replace Officer Minsavage who left to join the State Police Academy.
